Message from Editor's desk

Dear members, associates and friends,

Season's greetings and Merry Christmas!

Apart from regular activities, we intend to spend some time to let our friends know about the current programmes, happenings, events of our organization through a medium that can communicate directly with a huge audience in a very short time. We will serve you updates accordingly with the progress of our work, new findings, new techniques. You also can share your ideas, activities and feedbacks too.

Hope your blessings.

In solidarity,

Street To School (STS) Project: Annual Meet 2014—A Report

The Saturday afternoon sparked off with the flight of hundreds of colourful paper gliders and the poem of incomparable Sukumar Ray. The children performed a dance drama 'Hingsute Daittya' based on the famous story of Selfish Giant by Oscar Wild. A soul touching dance collage by the children against the curse of child marriage 'Chhoti si Asha' received much applaud from the audience. Apart from these two cultural performances, a short movie on DRCSC's journey with the children of Kolkata was also heartwarming to watch.

The last but the most engrossing experience was to watch the breath-taking Puppet show performed by 'Tal-Betal Puppet theatre' on the theme of Environment conservation & Child Rights. A packed audience of more than 400 adults and children enjoyed this 3 hours show.

District Commissioner of Kolkata Police Mr. Subrata Kumar Ghosh, television artist Sri Apurba Roy, representatives from our funding partner Save the Children were present during the event, which was organised also to mark the 25 year of the historic UNCRC (United Nations Convention on the Rights of Child) 1989. The message was loud and clear from DRCSC , we believe that, 'No development is possible excluding the children.'

Krishi Unnayan Mela 2014 at BCKV, Nadia

Joint host Department of Agriculture, Government of West Bengal and Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), Eastern Region . November 5 to 7, 2014 at Bidhan Chandra Krishi Viswavidyalaya (Mohanpur), West Bengal. DRCS's representation through publication outreach.

DRCS has organized a day-round workshop on food, nutrition and livelihood in semi-arid region of West Bengal on 10 December 2014 at Chatna Block Office, Bankura. The objectives of the workshop was to share the experiences and knowledge of farmers who have worked under the SIFS project for last 3 years in 14 villages. Farmers have exchanged their views and knowledge among themselves also with Panchayat representatives, government officials and other dignitaries. On the other hand, government officials have discussed on government schemes, its way to access etc.

A similar workshop with same objectives was took place at Lavpur Block on 12 December 2014. Both of the workshops were very successful and the farmers got a lot of satisfaction by attending the workshop.
